Tessa Burwood has been appointed as a Community Arts Consultant to develop a programme of Art events and activities for Kings Heath Village Square. She is a multilingual public image consultant and creative practitioner and is also experienced seamstress and scenic artist. She holds an MA in Spanish and Portuguese from Cambridge, and gained a fluent knowledge of Brazilian language, music and culture during her time spent living and working across Brazil. She worked as New Media Producer for the BBC before setting up her company Magpie Brown, in 2009, where she promotes regular music led events in Birmingham. Having lived part of the week in Kings Heath for 4 years now, Tessa says " I became curious about what was being built around the church, and its position on that busy corner is a bustling hub for such a diverse and constantly changing demographic, the potential to draw communities together around it is immense." Vivien Thickett, chair of All Saints Community Arts, says " We are delighted that Tessa has joined our team and she has already shown great enthusiasm and energy in embracing the tasks before her. We look forward to many interesting activities taking place on the Village Square during the next year; look out for information about these in Outlook and on the ASC website, and follow our Twitter feed too."
