Happy Birthday Village Square!

On Saturday 13th October, a celebration was held on the Village Square to mark one year since this beautiful space was opened to the public. Rev David Warbrick commenced the proceedings by reminding us of all the activities which have taken place during the year, and invited Mrs. Farouk of Kings Heath Dental Clinic to present a cheque for £500 being the first local Business Sponsor of a flowerbed. The Clinic is partnered with Colmore School and they plan activities together which include maintenance of the planted area and dental hygiene education. The event went onto commemorate the installation of the restored Edwardian Lamppost and the beginning text of the poem written by Rosie Miles which swirls around its base. Peter Wright, Regeneration Officer, was there to tell the story from the City Council's perspective, and Rosie read her poem 'You Enter' in its entirety. If you are a Local Business and would like to sponsor a flowerbed, please contact the ASC office for details: bookings@allsaintscentrehk.co.uk

The building shell is being built with a grant of £100k from Birmingham City Council and fitting-out and finishing will be undertaken by young people in collaboration with South Birmingham College, Construction Department. Kiu Wai Lam, Young Leaders Coordinator (on the left of the photograph) says "The young people are really looking forward to working on the centre and creating a space that they can call their own. Having space dedicated to work with young people has long been our aim."
