The Robin Centre Celebrates National Older People's Day

The Robin Centre celebrated National Older People's Day in style with a lively Afternoon Tea Party. All Saints Centre Hall was filled to capacity on 1st October to accommodate this event.

The occasion also marked the Fourth Anniversary of the opening of the Robin Centre and was held in recognition of the outstanding service it provides for Older People in the area.

The Guests of Honour were the Lord Mayor Councillor Mike Leddy and Lady Mayoress, Pauline Leddy. Among the other notable attendees was Joanne Malin, local TV and Radio personality. They mingled and chatted during the event, much to the delight of the other guests.

Exhibitions

Black and White and Red All Over

Weeping Woman

To celebrate Remembrance Janice Rider presents an exhibition in All Saints Church of collage based works which reflect on War , Conflict & Suffering , focussing on recent conflicts in the Middle East and Afghanistan . Through use of newsprint and the printed word as her main material , she questions what part the media , religious belief and economics contribute to East/West relations and the ongoing climate of fear ,suspicion and destruction.

An accompanying exhibition by Janice Rider : Alexandria Revisited - will be displayed in the ASC Welcome Space. Both exhibitions run from 10 - 30th November. Viewings times in church will be Saturdays 16 , 23 , 30th from 11.00-3pm (until 1pm on 30th) There will be a discussion & film showing to support this exhibition on Sunday 10th Nov at 4.30pm.

Everyone entering the Hall was amazed to find it transformed by displays of beautiful flower arrangements and filled with colour.

Tempting sandwiches, scrummy cakes, lashings of tea and lots of fun were on the menu for the throngs of people attending the party.

Entertainment was provided by crooner, Chris King, who wowed this audience with his genial personality and renditions of songs from the Fifties and Sixties. He soon had many of the guests clapping and on their feet, singing along to the music.

The event was drawn to a close by David Warbrick, Vicar at All Saints, who acknowledged the immense contribution Older People bring to us as individuals and our communities.

Freemasons Support Youth Project

Our picture shows Kelly and Sam accompanied by youth worker Kiu Wai Lam receiving generous cheques from Robert Vaughan Provincial Grand Master of the Province of Worcestershire Freemasons towards the work of All Saints Youth Project. At the event in September, Kelly and Sam thanked attendees for raising the money and spoke about the work of the youth project and what it means to them to belong to such an active organisation.
