The 100th Kings Heath Farmers' Market took place on October 4th

We were looking forward to a dry day. The UK had the driest September since records began. We didn't have more than a few spots of rain in Kings Heath in the whole of September. Surely it wouldn't rain on such a big day for us? Oh yes it would! It rained from 7.00 till about 11.00!!!

Mick Farbrother did a fine job getting all the stalls ready, and his team of helpers put them up in the morning (partly in the rain!) and took them down in the afternoon. There were 37 stalls altogether - a record. And they put 3 gazebos up as well. Thanks also go to Tom Tierney for organising the music. Steve Ajao was the headline act, plus the Queensbridge School Steel Pan Band, plus local musicians. Customers could get a free smoothie - if they pedalled for it themselves! And there was a Pop Up Storytelling tent.

Steve Bairstow, from the organising committee, said: "It was certainly a team effort on the day. Mick Farbrother and Tom Tierney have already been mentioned above. I also want to thank Julie and her team from Balloon Away for putting the balloons up, Bake (one of the stallholders) for baking the celebration cake, Paul Tyrrell for taking the photographs and Dave from Canvas Frames for printing some leaflets at short notice. And I can't forget Stan Hems for helping me to cut the cake. It was a great day overall - only the morning rain spoiled it. We look forward to our 10th anniversary bash in May 2016!"

Fond Farewell

Sue Pearson and Maureen Foster were showered with cards, gifts and bouquets as Service Users, Carers and Staff expressed heartfelt thanks for the excellent service they have both provided at the Robin Centre (for Older People).

Sue (Day Services Manager) has been the rock on which the Robin Centre has been founded, since it was established five years ago at All Saints Centre. It is through her expertise, wealth of experience and care that the Robin Centre has become a haven for its Service Users, thus also providing essential Respite and support for their Carers.

Maureen Foster, also employed at the Robin Centre's inception, has since been promoted to Deputy Manager, and as well as working full-time, successfully studied and gained her Master's Degree in Social Care Management and Leadership for which she is to be congratulated.

Highly esteemed and much loved, together they led the Robin Centre, and it is through their hard work and commitment that it has become a renowned Day Centre of Excellence for Older People.

Community KnitvityProject Sheep Missing in Kings Heath!

Wanted! Sheep Searchers 1st to 20th December 2014

Children in Kings Heath are being invited to take part in a sheep (knitted variety) trail in the weeks leading up to Christmas. The sheep have been knitted by members and friends of All Saints Church. They will be placed in shops on and around the High Street. The children find the sheep, make a note of their names and discover the angels' Christmas message.

Rev'd Diane Thompson says, 'This is a way for all the children to have some fun and find out about the Christmas Story at the same time. Shops have all been keen to be involved. Some sheep can be spotted in windows, others further inside. There are 21 to search for.'

Pick up an entry form from the Village Square Café or Kings Heath Library (both on the High Street,) participating schools and churches or download one at allsaintskingsheath.org.uk

Part of the 'Community Knitvity Project led by members and friends of All Saints Church. Supported by Kings Heath Business Association, BID, Lions Clubs and Churches Together.

What makes folk song special? at Dark Horse in Moseley Village 11am -5pm Sunday 2 Nov

Here are details of an exciting one day workshop , to be led by Sandra Kerr. The cost is £35 (including unlimited tea and coffee!) and tickets are available from Pam tel: 0121 247 3856
Sandra says: "This day of workshops will give us the opportunity to examine in some depth the nature of the songs we love to sing."
