News from All Saints Children's and Families Minister

Hi folks! There are some really exciting things coming up for children and families in the life of Kings Heath this month.

Fortnightly 'Crafternoons' are starting up this term. Every first and third Tuesday from 4-5pm I will be in the All Saints Cafe with games, crafts and stories ideal for primary school aged children, on a Bible theme or character each fortnight.

We'll have toast and squash available, suggested donation £2 per person. If you're able to come, please let me know in advance so we know how many to expect.

Art Exhibitions

The current exhibition which continues in the Welcome Space until 26 February is 'Paintings from Cairo' by Omar Elfayoumi. We are privileged to be able to show a selection of works by this internationally-renowned Egyptian artist. Most days Omar visits his favourite coffeehouse to meet and observe fellow customers. Drawing on artistic influences from Europe to the iconic mummy paintings of Fayoum, he depicts soulful glimpses into the everyday modern lives of people from a little-changed ancient culture. Forthcoming exhibition : 26 February - 9 April 2017 ' Chroma ' paintings by Gillian Lever. The Welcome Space gallery is open daily from 9am-5pm and also on Sundays after the morning services.

Notes On Blindness Sunday 26th February at 3pm

This award winning documentary will be shown in the hall followed by a question and answer session with Marilyn Hull, John's wife

Family Prayer Packs

These were launched in January and aimed at encouraging families to pray together more easily in their own homes. February packs are available all month from the back of All Saints Church (where the hymn books are given out)

All Saints Youth Project

Welcome to Josh Reynolds who has joined the All Saints Youth Project team. Josh gained his BA honours in youth and community studies at Worcester City University and had his final placement at Kidderminster Youth House, where he also volunteered. His hobbies include playing video games and he is a big Wolves fan. Josh will be working, as a Youth Worker, Monday to Thursday on the Village Square. He says "I am looking forward to the responsibility of working on the square and being able to grow the job any suggestions for activities would be welcome from young people and adults".

So if you are passing through the square between 3.15 and 5.15 pm say "hallo". Welcome Josh. We're sure you are going to be a great asset to the team.

Fundraising

Inclusion 4U are holding a fundraising event for All Saints Youth Project and Inclusion+. There will be music and dancing with the 'Official Receivers Soulband' live on stage! Tickets only £8 Friday 3rd March, 7.30 - 11.30pm at the E57 Social Club, 699 Alcester Road South, Kings Heath B14 5EY This event is a ticket only event. Tickets can be purchased from the staff at All Saints Youth Project. There will be a raffle with some fabulous prizes on the night! Please come along and support us and have a fun evening.
