Art Exhibitions

Gillian Lever's popular painting exhibition of Colourful Abstract Compositions continues until April 7 , after which a new photographic exhibition : Intimate Details by Brian Davis will run until 28 May. These sensitive photographs were taken as an attempt to represent an unusual building : a restored flaxmill and cottages in Dungiven , Northern Ireland where they now do hand-weaving of linen on looms and recreate ancient crafts .
The Welcome Space is open daily 9.00-5.00 pm and after Sunday services.

Student Parliament Charity Cake Sale Village Square 31ST March 12- 2pm

Over the past few months, pupils from seven local schools have been working together to form a Student Parliament. Pupils have been meeting to share ideas, talk over areas that they would like to build upon in their school and organise joint events to allow everyone to work together. The summer will see all schools have talent show heats culminating in a final extravaganza at Queensbridge school with the top two from each school performing for the title. The first event is a pop up market cake sale to raise money for local charities. All schools will prepare the cakes and then head up to Kings Heath Village Square to set up their market and provide the residents of Kings Heath with a cake feast. Half the money raised will be going back into supporting All Saints Church with the rest going to charities supported by each school. Please try to support the event and come along and buy some cakes! The Student Parliament of Kings Heath and Moseley.

The All Saints Youth Project

We're celebrating 20 years of operation and to commemorate this milestone we would like to compile a book of stories from previous young people through the years. We would like to invite anyone who has a story, memory or anecdote to share about their experience at the youth project to contribute to this exciting project. We will gladly welcome any old photos or nostalgia or perhaps if anyone is willing to be interviewed by our young people then please get in touch! (see below)
The building and the landscape may have changed over the years but the passion and commitment to young people has remained unchanged. K.Lam@asyp.org.uk or drop in to the youth project

Happy Easter everybody! And welcome to Spring!

It's an exciting season in the life of All Saints Children and Families Ministry. The BFG Family Day on 4th March was fab – we welcomed almost 200 people during the morning, and then at the Film Night later on. We had great fun with the crafts – making Dream Catchers, Dream Jars, taking pictures with the BFG Photo-booth, making and eating Snozzcubmers (with cucumbers, green jelly and strawberry laces!), writing our bad dreams in a giant Trogglehumper jar and placing our hopes and good dreams on a white dream tree in the Prayer Space. The evening BFG film showing was so popular we're aiming to make Film Nights a regular thing – watch this space for more dates, and contact me to put in some requests on film choice!

The next exciting Family Event is on Easter Saturday 15th April 10am-12:30pm Please join the Facebook group: 'All Saints Children and Families' to keep up to date with regular events, and follow us on Twitter: @allsaintsfamily Blessings, Emily Hoe (Children's and Families Minister for All Saints Kings Heath)
