Art Exhibitions Watercolour Landscapes by Pat Rowland

These are a selection of paintings of Pat's favourite outdoor scenes. They include Billesley Common, Earlswood Lakes and Kings Heath Park. Others include Brean in Somerset, and Playa De Las Americas in Tenerife.

Pat is retired community worker and has always lived in the Kings Heath area. She has organised fifteen of the annual Kings Heath Carnivals, was Akela to the All Saints Cub Pack for thirty years, and has been the editor of All Saints Outlook since 2008.

She enjoys spending time with her four grandchildren and relaxing with her husband at their caravan in Brean.

The exhibition runs from April 1st to June 2nd in All Saints Centre Kings Heath. Open daily from 9am to 5pm Mon to Sat & after church service on Sunday mornings.

'A Fair Cop' Wednesday May 8th at 2.30 p.m

Did you know we have had Women Police Officers since 1917 ?

Come to this informative fun, and revealing talk at All Saints Church on Wednesday May 8th at 2.30 p.m. in the Church.

Did you know that from being just a few Women Officers with limited powers, patrolling part of London at the end of the First World War, we now have the highest ranking police officer in the UK Cressida Dick, Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police ?

Price includes tea coffee and cake just £4 . Tickets from the Welcome Desk at the All Saints Centre or the Cafe or pay on the door.

All Saints Centre Village Square Gardening

Do you enjoy gardening?

Can you spare an hour or two to help maintain our All Saints Kings Heath Village Square, an oasis of calm beside the very busy corner of the High Street and Vicarage Road? Please, just come along and be part of our friendly group of volunteer gardeners, at 10.00am any Wednesday morning.

What Is Christian Aid Week?

It's the UK's longest running fundraising week - last year it raised 8 million pounds to help poor communities around the world tackle the root causes of poverty.

This year Christian Aid Week is the 12th to 18th May. And if disasters strike it helps - healthcare and education, making communities resilient, ensuring prompt action. £10 can buy timber to build a health centre; £15 pays for a stethoscope for a maternity clinic. £60 buys a bicycle, torch, raincoat and boots so a health care professional can visit patients in all weathers.

Every one of us can help, All Saints Church will be collecting in some roads around Kings Heath. During May 4th there will be a collection on the Village Square at the Farmers Market. On May 11th a Quiz in the Church Hall (teams of up to 6 only £2 each to enter) 7,30 pm start, and on Sunday May 12th a BIG BREAKFAST from 8 am until 10 pm with all proceeds going to Christian Aid in the Village Square Cafe.

Please support Christian Aid this year
