Issue 4 March 2009

AN EVENING of Birmingham History with Dr CARL CHINN

Thursday June 4th 2009 at 7.30 p.m. in All Saints Church admission £5.00 including refreshments and " Brummie " Cakes

Carl will be talking about Birmingham History with time for questions at the end. Carl is a well known Radio WM presenter, Birmingham Evening Mail columnist and Professor of History at Birmingham University. Funds raised on the evening will go towards equipping the new older peoples centre opening in the summer of 2009.

Tickets available on the door or from the All Saints Parish Office.

Phase 2 of the Building Project

Phase 2 continues to go well and despite the unprecedented snowfall the building looks to be on schedule. The roof is now on and the contractors are now proceeding with the cedar shingles. In the first week of March they will be starting the fit-out on the inside of the building, which will consist of installing the electrics, water and heating.

All Saints Youth Project Celebrates 10 successful years

The largest voluntary sector youth project in south Birmingham celebrates its 10th anniversary on 24th March by launching a 6 month programme of events.

All Saints Youth Project Manager Jo Burrows says "During the past 10 years many thousands of young people have benefitted from our comprehensive programme of support including after school drop-ins, holiday schemes, sports and arts, a mentoring scheme and Youth Achievement Awards. Our 10th anniversary programme also includes activities to raise funds that are vital for continuation of our work."

Young people, staff, volunteers and supporters (past and present) are invited to the celebration launch on 24th March at 6.30 in All Saints Church Hall (see invitation)
