Making History in Kings Heath

A new village square for Kings Heath at last! On Monday 21st February Historian, Broadcaster and local celebrity Carl Chinn along with local historian Margaret Shepherd cut the first sod of the new half a million pound Village Square being built in the centre of Kings Heath by the All Saints Community Development Company.

Birmingham City Council and the Diocese of Birmingham are supporting this exciting development - part of the All Saints Community Development scheme including the All Saints Centre. It will see a landscaped area available for events and a new farmers market; it will give a green heart to Kings Heath. It will provide a green area of calm on the busy High Street. The development is being built by builders Trendgrey and will incorporate a labyrinth, water feature and a refurbished war memorial.

Carl Chinn is a patron of the scheme and Margaret Shepherd has attended All Saints Church for 66 years and is chairperson of the local history association.

Youth Project Fund Raising Continues

On a cold, frosty night in December eight of us from the Youth Project Management Committee became Santa's little helpers. We walked around Kings Heath with Santa and the Moseley Round Table to surprise local children and at the same time collect donations for charities. Several local groups visited other streets in the same week and all funds raised were divided between the different charities. Our share for the All Saints Youth Project was £200. We had a lot of fun and it was fantastic to see the excitement on the children's faces (and adults!) when they met Santa. As you may know, due to continued funding problems, we have recently had to make the difficult decision to cut one of our evening sessions. £200 won't keep it open but is very welcome nevertheless. If you have any ideas for fundraising, you would like to know more about us or you would like to join our regular giving scheme, please give us a call on 0121 441 1827.

What has happened to Pancake Day ?

Usually by now we have had Pancake Day, but not this year. So what's happened to it? This year it doesn't fall until 8th March.

Pancake Day, or Shrove Tuesday is the day before Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, the period of reflection and fasting that leads up to Good Friday and Easter Day. Easter Day is always on a Sunday, but which Sunday?

The date depends both on the moon and the sun, as Easter is on the Sunday which follows the first full moon after 21st March, or the spring equinox. This means that Easter can fall any time between 22nd March and 25th April. So this year Easter Sunday is just about as late as it can be, and all the other dates dependent on the date of Easter – Pancake Day, Ash Wednesday, Mothering Sunday and Good Friday are also late.

Mothering Sunday will fall on 3rd April, the first Sunday in April, this year. There will be services at All Saints at 9.15 and 11 am that morning.

In 2038 Easter will fall on the last possible date of 25th April, but it won't fall on the earliest possible date, 22nd March, again until 2285!

New home almost ready

Over the next few weeks All Saints Older Peoples Centre will be settling into their new permanent home in the latest phase of All Saints Centre. The area near the camera will be the dining space with servery in the background and out of sight to the left is the lounge area, access to utilities and the garden. Through the sliding doors is the new multi-purpose hall that will be used by a range of community organisations and is also available for hire. The building, which has been built with funding from the Big Lottery (Community Buildings Programme) and The Social Investment Business, also includes welcome and café space, offices and rooms for community groups and a link to All Saints Church.
