Balloons take to the sky at the successful launch of 10 year anniversary celebrations for All Saints Youth Project

On 24th March over 100 people gathered to celebrate the launch of the 10 year anniversary celebrations of All Saints Youth Project. Compared by Jo Burrows (Youth Project Development Manager) there was a balloon launch of 30 purple balloons which blew dramatically over the church roof, a toast with fizzy (non-alcoholic) wine and the cutting and eating of a celebration cake.

The chair of the youth management committee – Mary Miles, outlined the history of the Project and praised its success. She reminded people that, as a voluntary project, they are always looking for funding to maintain the diverse work with young people.

There was also a surprise for one young person – Arnoldo Williamson – who was presented with his platinum Youth Achievement Award certificate by Les Hemus of Birmingham Association of Youth Clubs.

The event finished with some songs by 2 members of the Project's singing group. There were many congratulatory remarks made, both about the enjoyable occasion and the work of the Youth Project.
