1st Anniversary Celebrations

Will be held on Saturday 13th October 11am. We will celebrate the installation of the renovated Edwardian lamppost and the completion of the poem by Rosie Miles, who will be present. Also the unveiling of the first Flowerbed Sponsor Plaque to link local businesses and schools.

LOTTERY FUNDED

Hope Fennell

Saturday 15th September would have been Hope Fennell's fourteenth birthday, had she not been run over by a lorry on Kings Heath High Street last year. Such immeasurable loss provoked much sympathy and concern in Kings Heath for her family who, in turn, suggest that we channel those energies of concern into making our neighbourhood safer. Several hundred people walked along the High Street with drums and flags that day, gathering in the Village Square to hear encouragement to be vigilant about road safety. Suggestions of practical improvements were made by Councillor Lisa Trickett. Mrs Fennell spoke of her hope that no other family experience such loss. A rock band played. A prayer was offered. Cyclists and parents and children talked about the issues. Balloons floated up. Road Peace encouraged the signing of a petition. Out of the tragedy something grew that was, you might say, positively sad.

Kings Heath won Silver Gilt Award in Britain in Bloom Competition

Kings Heath rolled out the red carpet for ten regional Mayors and Lord Mayors as the Midlands horticultural community came together on 13th September for the announcement of the prestigious Heart of England in Bloom Award.

The Heart of England in Bloom competition rewards suburbs, towns and villages for their floral displays while also taking into account their environmental credentials and community engagement programme. Bob Prew, Chairman of the Kings Heath Centre Partnership's Clean and Green Committee which organises the area's Floral Trail each year, said "We were delighted to be able to welcome the judging panel and all the finalists to Kings Heath for the awards ceremony, showing off our magnificent new Village Square and stunning floral displays in the shopping area and surrounding parks."

Regeneration and Renewal Awards

Kings Heath Village Square

has been nominated for the prestigious Regeneration and Renewal Awards. The ceremony is to be held in London on 22nd November. We have been shortlisted in 2 categories; 'Partnership Working' and 'Best Use of Arts & Culture'
