Our busy July and August

Young people at All Saints Youth Project Holiday Scheme and local police enjoying some time together. The youth project have secured funding to run a 4 week long holiday scheme for around 50 young people aged 11 to 18 (25 with disabilities) every summer for the past 6 years.

The Cartland Memorial Gates being re-dedicated on July 4th, following restoration and repositioning at the All Saints Memorial Garden. Guest of honour was Ian McCorquodale Barbara Cartland's elder son, who was accompanied by his wife Bryony. The Revd. John Wilkinson (left in picture) returned to lead the ceremony and offer the re-dedication prayer.

Members of the new All Saints Day Centre enjoying themselves doing the conga, whilst others were playing dominos

Village Square update

Over 120 questionnaires were completed as part of the village square consultation launched at July's Farmers Market. Many thanks to everyone who took part and a summary of your views should appear in October's Outlook.
