EYES FRONT!
with Isla St Clair
Thursday 10th October 7.30pm

Combining live performance and film footage, singer and television personality Isla St Clair presents this delightfully nostalgic, poignant and humorous look at the effects of music in wartime. Isla performs a selection of songs ranging from Napoleonic times, through to the popular hits that were born out of two world wars and the 1950's. Joining Isla is film maker Patrick King who gives a fascinating and humorous "behind-the-scenes" look at the making of their award winning documentary films. Using film clips they illustrate how songs and music played an important part in people's daily lives: for boosting morale, for propaganda or for just reminding people of better times during some of the darkest days in our history.

The Show will be In the All Saints Hall with a Licensed Bar and the ticket Includes a light Supper. Tickets from the Welcome Desk at All Saints or from Des or Sheila on 0121 443 5292
