Village Square Cafe Reopens on Saturday 3rd May

Our photograph shows Colette and Michelle Kelly receiving the lease for the Village Square Cafe from Stan Hems Director of All Saints Community Development Company. Colette and Michelle say "We are very excited about this new venture and are looking forward to running the community cafe at the heart of Kings Heath in such a lovely location. We plan to sell simple hearty home made food using locally sources ingredients and fairly traded goods. We will be open Mondays to Saturdays 9am to 5pm from 3rd May and we look forward to making everyone welcome" Colette, Michelle and Mark and their family also run the Victorian Tea Rooms in Kings Heath Park.

KingshEATH Streetfood Market has Spring in its Step!

Spring sprung just in time for the return of Kings Heath's hugely popular streetfood market. On Saturday 8th March the crowds once again descended on the Village Square for a wonderful day filled with Brum Yum Yum's famous streetfood, craft beers from The Hare on the Square and live music from local ska band The Heels.

Launched last April, KingshEATH was Birmingham's first ever streetfood market. Every month people travel from all over the Midlands to enjoy this unique event, but to Kings Heathens it's a community day; a chance to meet up with friends and neighbours to enjoy the Village Square together.

So come along on Saturday
12th April

Soak up the unique atmosphere and taste the best food in the city, right here in Kings Heath! KingshEATH is on the second Saturday of every month, from 12 till 6pm.

The closing date for May Outlook is April 22nd

Gardening Club

"Are you a keen gardener?" Mel asks "We are looking for keen gardeners to volunteer to help keep our Village Square looking beautiful.

Just come along on a Wednesday morning 9.30am onwards and join the team."

All Saints Stay and Play

Our Stay and Play at All Saints Centre is a thriving group of young children from babies upwards and their mums, dads and carers. organised by Emma Cutler there is a range of toys, playthings and activities on offer from blowing bubbles to painting. When the weather is nice the group venture out onto the village square. Parents have an opportunity to have a chat and a drink with each other. On Tuesday morning from 9.30 to 11 term time for the cost of £2.50 plus £1 siblings. We are hoping to open a second stay and play, in September, on a Thursday.

All Saints Youth Project

runs a Stay and Play for teenage parents on Monday morning 10 - 11 and a Dads' Group alternate Fridays 4.30 to 6.30
(next meeting April 11th)

Is your son or daughter starting at secondary school in September? Did you know that All Saints Youth Project has a transition group to support young people with this major event in their lives? If you want to know more the phone Kiu Wai Lam on 0121 441 4106 or email: allsaintsyouthproject@btinternet.com

First Anniversary of Ritz Ballroom Fire

A Special Concert is to be held on Sunday 6 April to commemorate the first anniversary of the fire that destroyed the former Ritz Ballroom on King's Heath's York Road. The ballroom witnessed legendary performances by top rock 'n' roll artists Bill Haley, Gene Vincent and Jerry Lee Lewis, reggae star Jimmy Cliff and all the major 1960's groups including The Beatles, The Move, The Rolling Stones, The Kinks and Pink Floyd. The 3 hour commemorative concert will be held at Fletchers Bar directly featuring the popular and award winning Out of The Shadows who will perform some of the greatest pop songs and instrumentals from the late 1950's onwards. They will be supported by the young and talented school student and singer/songwriter Harriet Harkcom. Advance tickets for the concert cost £3 from the Kitchen Garden Cafe or www.wegotickets.com. Any remaining tickets on door £4
