Sheep Missing in Kings Heath !

The sheep are all gathered in after their month of hiding in the shops; picture taken in the Village Square Café.

Well done to all who went on the search. Thirty one children managed to find all 21 sheep! Inside there is a picture of Max the Macaw. He took a bit too much of a liking to Tsitsi the sheep and unstitched her!

A big thank you to: All Saints knitters and friends; the shop-keepers who were hospitable to sheep and sheep-searchers alike; the schools, businesses and churches who helped with publicity and sponsorship; Sarah Baker the composer of 'Sleepy Sheep' and all the children and adults who rehearsed and performed this special version of the Christmas story at All Saints on Christmas Eve. It was a joy.

Art Exhibitions in the Welcome Space 5th Jan- February 28th Bringing My Outdoors, Indoors. By Sarah Bagnall

I am a local artist. I studied for my Visual Arts degree at Birmingham City University between 2003-2006. Since then I have exhibited in Bristol and several times at Ort in Moseley, Birmingham.

For this exhibition entitled "Bringing My Outdoors Indoors" I have based my work upon photographs taken from my garden. I wanted to try and emanate the emotional impact my garden had upon me; using pattern. Now that I no longer have this outdoor space I wanted to capture the substance of my garden by bringing it indoors.
