Challenge

Sunday 9th August 2015

The CircusMASH Challenge is a day of circus fun, taking over Kings Heath Village Square on 9th August 2015. Think creative fundraising, with a twist! After a last year's success, we were able to raise an incredible £8,000 to put All Saints Old Church Hall back into use, dedicating the space to circus arts and training. This year, The CircusMASH Challenge is back and launches an exciting, new fundraising campaign, 'Operation Circus', which goes live on 1st September. The campaign supports the CircusMASH team's mission – we've set out to generate £15,000 to customize the ceiling of our brand new space and install a rig. And thanks to our lovely community, The Challenge will help us do just that! Through sponsorship funds, each contestant taking part will be helping us get one step closer to raising the necessary funds for our rig, while picking up some pretty nifty circus skills along the way. This time around, The Challenge is bigger and better than ever - did we mention the theme?! That's right, ladies and gents... FANCY DRESS! Fancy yourself a Minion, Olaf or the Mad Hatter, while walking the tight wire or performing a headstand? Perfect opportunity. In fact, as PRIZES are up for grabs for challenges, it's only right we award bonus points for best costume too! Rewards are also up for grabs for sponsorship amounts! So, if your friends and family won't be joining you for the challenges, perhaps they'll be happy to sponsor your efforts. Keep a look out on line for the next newsletter, where all will be revealed.
