The All Saints BIG FETE

This year's Fete was a great success with over 21 stalls from collectables to lots and lots of home made cakes. There was a barrel of All Saints Ale, rescued owls and a concert by the 40 strong U3A choir in church. The event raised money for the work of All Saints Church, The Robin Day Centre and All Saints Youth Project. Pictured here is Sarah Wilson who was the instigator of the great Decorate a Wheelbarrow competition leading in some of the entries. Sarah said " It was very successful and we want to do it again next year"

Caroline's Zumba Dancers entertain the crowds at The All Saints Summer Fete. Caroline holds weekly classes all over Kings Heath and at All Saints Centre on Fridays at 10 a.m

Art Exhibition

Photographic exhibition by Paul Knapman 4th July-4th September
Paul is a local keen amateur photographer, who has recently moved to Kings Heath from Sutton Coldfield . This collection is an mix of travel inspired landscapes, personal moments and interesting natural and manmade patterns. You will see no cropping or manipulation by Photoshop : his prints are exactly what he saw through the viewfinder . The exhibition will be open daily from 09.30 to 5.00 pm and also on Sundays after the morning services.

Carnival of Inclusive Play

Under eights 10.30am-12.45pm. Over eights 1.30pm -3.45pm
Uffculme School Queensbridge Road Moseley B13 8QB

Parks for Play were awarded Community Champion Gold Award by Kings Heath BID

(Business improvement District) for their contribution to services for children and their work on equalities. In addition to all their free inclusive playschemes in local parks Parks for Play also run the first specialist afterschool care in the country so that local parents with disabled children can go to work. There is NO other afterschool childcare at any special schools, whilst employment and childcare remain key government concerns, one group of people continues to be denied access to work.

Please spend 3 minutes watching this film Making The Case For Equal Access To Work <http://vimeo.com/axefilms/equalaccesstowork>. Text FAIR16 £1 to 70070 to support specialist childcare Hullabaloo: commotion, fuss, noisy situation...

A beautiful display of organized chaos! This 2-hour outdoor experience will entice, amaze and engage audience members in vibrant displays of circus, senses and nonsense. #joinTHEnoise by entering Hullabaloo's challenges, which blend a series of circus tasks with performances, culminating in an event where game meets grandiose. Amongst the bustle of performances and frivolity, the multi-sensory experience will guide participants through a range of skills: coordination, equilibrium and aerial. Transcendent, it's a colourful and explosively vibrant world of frenzied circus mania! Resulting in a free, highly sensory and immersive participatory experience, both accessible and approachable.

Saturday 30th July on Kings Heath Square, All Saints Centre, 1-3pm

All Saints Stay & Play

All Saints Community Projects will be keeping the Thursday morning session available for a new activity for pre schoolers. We're so sorry we had to close the Thursday session, but we were running out of funds due to recent low numbers. So if you have something exciting for the 0 - 4 age group and would like to set up a group on Thursday mornings please contact Pat 078 144 755 99 and we'll help to get you started.

Bowls England and Kings Heath Cricket and Sports Club put on a bowls roadshow on the Village Square in Kings Heath on Saturday June 4th. Over 90 people of all ages had a go and 13 attended the open day at the cricket club on Sunday 5th. This has led to 3 new members for the bowls section. if you would like to have a go at Lawn bowls contact captain Len Pates on 441 4361

Referendum

Over 50 people attended the referendum debate in the Church on June 4th. It was chaired by the Rev David Warbrick and had Richard Burden MP speaking to remain and Roger Godsiff MP proposing to leave the EU.

Walk Of fame

A great afternoon of rock 'n' roll inspired music organised by King's Heath Walk of Fame will take place at Fletchers Bar on Sunday 10 July. As well as commemorating the many famous musicians like Bill Haley, Gene Vincent and Jerry Lee Lewis who performed at the now burnt down Ritz Ballroom opposite Fletchers the session will also showcase Harry Jordan - an exciting new local talent.
