Street food Market Saturday 9th September

Kings Heath Street Food Market returns on 9th September for the sixth 2017 event. This month, the team bring another mix of great street food traders, drinks and activities to Kings Heath Village Square. Event Sponsor, Birmingham Brewing Company, a Stirchley based micro-brewery, will provide their own range of craft beers, alongside Savva Bars who will provide a full bar service including cocktails and wine. DJ's will provide music in the square, and there will be plenty of activities to keep kids entertained.

The closing date for the October issue of Outlook is September 19th. Please send pictures, articles, future events to pat.a.rowland@gmail.com

Art Exhibitions

Joyce Rimmer - Drawings Sept 3 - Oct 15

Joyce was born in 1932 in Gloucestershire. She will be 85 in September. Even though she had two brothers she was lonely, so she drew pictures. In 1939 evacuees arrived in the village and her drawing stopped for a while because she had a friend.

She studied History at Bristol University and social work at the L.S.E and came to Birmingham as a probation officer in 1956.

She worked in Summer Lane where The Birmingham Settlement was, of which she later wrote 'an 80 year history' 'Troubles Shared'. After leaving the Probation Service in 1963, she lectured at Birmingham University until 1992. Joyce was a founder member of the Birmingham branch of Cruse Bereavement Care in 1974 and became Chair of the branch and later of the West Midlands Region. All Saints Community Arts is delighted to present some of Joyce's remarkable and witty drawings.

The following exhibition will be work by Sarah McWilliams Oct 15 - Nov 26.

All Saints TCM Afternoons

After a brief summer break, TCM returns to the All Saints Café on Thursdays at 3pm. A cup of tea or coffee, a piece of quality cake, scone or teacake and some good company - all for a subsidised price of just £1. Aimed at the over 55s, this is 90 minutes of music, a sing-a-long and sometimes a Karaoke. We have two pianists and three helpers to welcome you and chat. We are pleased to announce we now have some support from Comic Relief Community Events. For more information phone Des on 4443 5292
