Art Exhibitions

LAND OF MY FATHERS - Wales and Beyond.

An exhibition of photographs by Pete Davies
Mon 4th Feb - 31st March in the Welcome
Space , All
Saints Centre
Open daily from 09am - 3.30 pm
Mon - Sat &
after church service on Sundays

This exhibition brings together some of Pete's favourite photographic memories of his native Wales, along with some of his landscape photography. It is dedicated to his parents, who first showed him the beauty of the Welsh landscape and to Helen, his companion & fellow explorer .

Pete's photography really took off after he moved to Birmingham in 1992. Learning the craft of developing and printing at night school, he set up a home-darkroom and began producing photographs for club & regional exhibitions.

As well as the aesthetic, Pete is also interested in the technical and scientific aspects of photography and when his interest in amateur astronomy grew, it was a natural progression to learn techniques of astrophotography, made accessible to everyone in the digital age.

Over the last few years Pete's photography has benefited from being an active member of the vibrant community of Birmingham photographers and creatives.

The Robin Centre is a purpose built modern day centre providing care and respite for vulnerable older people, some of whom may have been diagnosed with Dementia. It is staffed by qualified social care professionals.

The Centre offers regular day care that is dementia friendly, providing a comfortable, safe environment for our clients, and offers a valuable respite for carers. Our dedicated staff are experienced and qualified.

A day at the centre includes opportunities for friendship and engagement in varied activities. As part of the care we also provide breakfast, a choice of meals at lunch-time and two tea breaks.

Transport to and from the centre is available, with a staff member to accompany clients. Open Mondays - Fridays 9.30 am. to 3.30 pm.

In September 2018 Sally Pell completed her Level 5 Diploma in Leadership for Health and Social Care and Children and Young People Services.
