All Saints Tea Cake And Music drop in happens every Thursday in the All Saints Cafe from 2.30pm until 4pm. All are welcome 45minutes of music and chat with quality cake and a range of drinks. This is followed by 45 minutes of community singing. This will be the third year of operation. Back in June Win Vince our oldest member celebrated her 90th birthday. Win from Stirchley comes every Thursday with her friend Sharon. She is married to Eric and they have been wed for 68 years. They have 3 children, 13 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren. Why not give TCM the Tea Cake and Music drop in a go next Thursday ?

Art Exhibitions A DRAWING LIFE by Nicky Braithwaite

This exhibition continues in the Welcome Space through September . Nicky has Asperger's Syndrome He is 52 and was born and educated in Birmingham . He has compulsively drawn from the age of 3, almost daily up until the present day . Nicky's mother Margaret, also an artist, has recently written a book about his life . She admires his fortitude and has learned a lot from his interests . The exhibition displays a selection of his drawings from childhood to later years, and is open daily from 9am - 3.30pm & after church services on Sunday.

King's Heath Village Flower and Vegetable Show

Following the success of the 'King's Heath Village Flower and Vegetable Show' in August, we would like to thank all our Sponsors, King's Heath Horticultural Society, The Cactus Society, Exhibitors and the 400plus people who came through our doors when the judging was completed at 12noon. There was lots of interest from people of all ages, and this time we had our first entries in the under 15's Classes and also the Domestic Classes, all in all, a successful show.

The Classic Cars Display and the music in The Village Square put the finishing touches to a brilliant Bank Holiday Monday. Let's do it all again for the Spring Flower Show on 11th April 2020. (Schedules will be available from the All Saints Cafe in late February/early March)

The Roald Dahl Summer

We had a great mixture of regulars, faces we haven't seen at smAll Saints or family events since last summer because of the changing patterns of work for parents; and families we've never met before. Just goes to show how worthwhile it is running activities over the summer!

We've been building links, making crafts, listening to people's stories, offering space for families with babies and young children to be together, and experiencing being in the church building, all whilst enjoying the stories of Roald Dahl At the time of writing we are preparing for the final instalment of our Dahl series - Danny the Champion of the World, and will be thinking about who our own heroes and champions are.

smAll Saints which we've had in the Memorial Garden throughout the summer (one of several regulars enjoying an ice slide, and one of my lovely little friends called Cici

My plans for September are very exciting - me and Lisa will be moving to Queens Foundation in Edgbaston around the 13th September, and beginning Induction Week / lectures the following week. I'll be training for an MA in Mission, Ministry and Theology for 2 years to enter ordained ministry as a Methodist Deacon.

I'm so very grateful for all the love, friendship, support, collegueship and more we've received from friends at All Saints - it's a real bittersweet feeling moving on. We will miss everyone, but we'll keep in touch, and maybe even pop in from time to time! We'd gladly welcome visitors to our flat in Queens too... Emily
