Brumside Radio

"Brumside Radio is and always will be a platform for the community, made by the community. On Sunday 25th April the Rock Show, hosted by Jag Dehele and Dan Hadley were joined by special guest Alex Hunt. Alex spent many years attending the Kings Heath All Saints Youth Project; who help so many young people and their families with and without additional needs every year. Since, Alex has become a keen listener and loyal supporter of many shows on Brumside Radio and so we thought it fitting for him to come in as a guest to play a few songs on his guitar for his Birthday. Alex spoke about his influences and about how his music life started. Alex also chatted to us about his relationship with the All Saints Youth project and how they helped him and encouraged him. Needless to say Alex loved being on the show and got to see behind the scenes of how a show is put together.

Here on the Rock Show we were amazed at all the love and support sent in to us from family, friends and regular listeners who were all so proud of Alex. We, at the Rock Show were so privileged to play host to such an inspiration and we thank Alex for coming in to see us and lastly, to Alex....

You smashed them songs, well done mate!

Kings Heath Food Bank

Kings Heath Foodbank was set up at the start of the Covid 19 pandemic and provided much needed support to both the vulnerable and families suffering from financial hardship. It is safe to say that the need for people to use the foodbank has increased with additional referrals from social workers, job centre and the police.

The foodbank is run entirely by volunteers and we are lucky to have a supportive and caring community with many streets making weekly collections and donations of food and other essential items required.

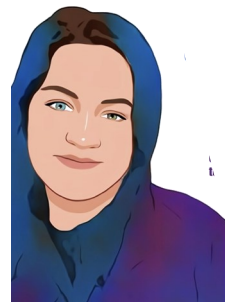

The community working together was demonstrated when the foodbank and the family support coordinator from All Saints Youth Project worked in partnership to provide food hampers and Chocolate Eggs over Easter for Families in need. A very valued and worthwhile project by Kings Heath Foodbank and All Saints Youth project.

Although the foodbank is a much-needed service to the community it does not have a permanent home. It has had to move premises several times over the past few months and is in desperate need for some permanent accommodation. Any suggestions of any available premises would be very much appreciated.

All Saints Youth Project

Chelsea's Challenges is the latest fun activity from All Saints Youth Project's amazing outreach Worker Chelsea. Designed to connect with Young People both on the Village Square and remotely over the youth Project's social media channels, Chelsea's Challenges will be held on a weekly basis for a 10-week period, giving Young People the opportunity to take part in various tasks and activities.

It's just the latest in a long line of projects from the staff at All Saints who have been non-stop over the past 12 months of this uncertain pandemic, ensuring that the Young People and families they support remain supported and connected.

Youth Project leader Pat said: "Chelsea's Challenges is a great way to have fun, stay active and connected with the Young People and it is proving to be a great success. It just further strengthens our relationship with them and lets them know that no matter what happens, we won't be going anywhere!"

Chelsea's Challenges and all of ASYP's activities can be found on their social media channels and their website:

The Bike Project

On the first Saturday of May members of All Saints Church organized a bicycle collection for the Bike Project (<https://thebikeproject.co.uk/>) at the monthly farmer's market. We also gave out information on the project to those who came past the stall. This charity collects second-hand bikes, fixes them up in their workshops and gives them to refugees, and since 2013 they have given away over 6000 bikes to refugees. They also run cycle training and a bike buddy scheme where volunteers are partnered with refugees.

Through the magic of social media, and advertising through the church newsletter we collected over 20 bikes. These were collected at the end of the farmers market and taken back to the Birmingham base of the Bike Project at the Old Print Works in Balsall Heath.

Anybody who wishes to donate direct can find details about the local drop-off points at <https://thebikeproject.co.uk/pages/donate-bike>

Thanks to everyone who helped and those who brought along bikes.
