Big Kind Snowman

All saints Centre was part of The Big Kind Snowman trail organised by the Enjoy Kings

Heath Team. This activity was all about spreading kindness and joy!! Children from local schools and neighbourhoods decorated their snowmen and they were displayed on the windows of shops and businesses in Kings Heath - children were able to follow the trail around Kings Heath throughout December and join in fun activities.

Terence John Howard (Terry Howard) 12/8/47 - 23/11/21

Terry Howard, who has died aged 74, was an artist known to many in Kings Heath. Born in 1947 in Birmingham Terry studied Technical Illustration and Graphic Design at the College of Art in Margaret Street. He worked for many years as a Commercial Artist successfully developing his own Design Consultancy. In 2003 Terry had a stroke which affected the left side of his body and forced him to take early retirement. At this point in his life Terry spent more time developing his own style of painting. He was particularly fascinated by the sea and sky.

His favourite subject being sailing ships and seascapes, a subject that enabled him to explore colour and movement.

Terry exhibited his work widely and in 2004 he was a finalist in the "Not the Turner Prize" Competition and showed a painting at the Mall Galleries, London. More recently, between Feb 2014 and October 2016, Terry had three solo exhibitions in the Welcome Space at the All Saints Centre.

Singers Break Records !

Clare and Ben have counted up our Christmas Eve collection from carol singing in the square and say: "We had our most successful Christmas Eve carol singing in the Square ever this year, raising £252.78 for the B30 Foodbank. Thanks to the record number of singers who turned out, and all who came to shake buckets and provide support - and to the generous people at Rourke's who offered free pies to all those who took part!
