All Saints Radio

This is a brand new episodic channel where Young People are given the platform and opportunity to discuss relevant social, fun and personal issues with a view to sharing their thoughts and opinions with a wider peer group.

Over time, their confidence in discussing a variety of subjects in an informal group setting will hopefully lead to them guesting on Brumside Radio.

The discussions can be about whatever the Young People choose and helps break down barriers in sessions, develop confidence and promotes healthy connections between them.

You can listen to the currently uploaded episodes on our website now. It can be found on the ASYP website: <https://www.allstainstryouthproject.org.uk/projects-3>

Colmore Road School Visit

Apart from their fabulously eager engagement and interest, their vivacity, yet ability to listen and notice, it was also moving to articulate All Saints life to visitors and so doing feel afresh, deep down how much we believe in that life.

Such a visit after two years' silence in that space represents the ordinary things we have missed and which are so very special.

Thank you all for being part of the community we are proud to tell visitors about.

David
