The Queen's Platinum Jubilee Celebrations

On Thursday June 8th as part of a week of celebration for the Queens Platinum Jubilee. The Robin Centre for older people planted an Apple Tree in the honour of her majesty the Queen. Planting the tree was the centres longest attending member Mr Tony Fish who has been coming for 11 years.

On the right Local Councillor Lisa Trickett, carer Judith Ward, Chair of the Directors David Ritchie and manager Paula McGrath. The Robin is a specialist day centre for older people with dementia and is open 5 days a week. Parties were held for 5 days to ensure everyone had an opportunity to honour the Queen. There was entertainers, music and lots of cakes. If you would like to know more about the Robin please call managers Paula or Sally on 0121 444 8111

All Saints Youth Project

Condover Hall - Youth Club Residential

During the Easter Spring break the young people of All Saints Youth Project ventured to the enchanting captures of Condover Hall in Shrewsbury. The itinerary was a 3 day away trip to undertake a range of activities, that aimed to build resilience, team work, problem solving, confidence, improve communication skills, and stretch comfort zones. To take young people out of the city landscape and embrace a more rural setting, and immerse themselves into the great outdoors and beauty of the countryside. Activities included: Ariel Trek Trapeze, Archery, Tag Mini Olympics, Gladiator Wall Scavenger Hunt and a Rock Climbing Team Challenge.

Wool Wanted
Gillian and Jake Lever will be facilitating art and craft workshops at Greenbelt this year (26th-29th August) with the 'Sew Far Sew Good' art collective. Greenbelt is an arts, faith and justice festival with a long and rich history. https://www.greenbelt.org.uk/

The theme of this year's Festival is 'Wake Up' and 'Sew Far Sew Good' will be offering 'Wake Up Weaving' alongside other craft activities in the 'Make and Create' tent. 'Sew Far Sew Good' hope to see other members of All Saints at the festival - it is exciting that a group are planning to camp together.

If you can help Gillian and Jake with donations of wool (especially sunny coloured wool in reds, oranges and yellows) and other sewing or craft materials it will be greatly appreciated. Please leave them labelled at the back of church or email Gillian at glever@btinternet.com to arrange collection. Thank you
