October 2022
Issue No 133

Queen Elizabeth 2nd 1926 - 2022

On 8th Sept 2022 Queen Elizabeth II, the UK's longest-serving monarch, died peacefully at Balmoral aged 96, after reigning for 70 years.

All Saints opened for the day on Friday 9th and Saturday 10th September for anyone wishing to reflect on the Queen's death might find some space and peace. Among the hundred and fifty or so people who called by, lighting candles and writing pages for a book of condolences, it was striking how many were young, some children after school, young parents with push chairs and shopping, people of different faiths and backgrounds. It was calm and touching.

Over the ten days of national mourning, prayers at All Saints reflected the paradox that it has taken a bereavement to unify the four nations that comprise Britain. After years of divisive, self-harming politics, the Monarch's death has had a curiously soothing effect on public life, just for a while. Whatever diverse opinions about monarchy there are across our fascinating neighbourhood, we have given thanks for this pause for thought about the bitter tone of so much of our political discourse. David

Pantomime 2023

There is to be another All Saints Pantomime! (Oh yes there is...!)

We will be putting on Dick Whittington on Saturday 11 February 2023.

We would love for a few new people to tread the boards, alongside all the 'old hands', so if you are interested, please see Clare or Ben Noakes or Fiona Briggs after church one Sunday or drop a line to players@allsaintschurchkh.org

Casting (VERY informal!) for speaking parts will be on Sunday 25 September, 15:00-17:00, though anyone interested in joining the chorus would also be welcome to come to get a flavour of what's in store.

Rehearsals, as in previous years, will be on Sundays from 15:00 to 17:00, starting on 16 October (chorus will not be required for the early ones). We'd also love to hear from anyone interested in helping with scenery, costumes, backstage or front of house for the performances too!
