All Saints Youth Project

The Big Christmas Word Quiz 2022

We would like to thank the All Saints community for their wonderful support with the fourth of this slowly becoming annual fund-raising venture. We are delighted to report that the 'Word Quiz' raised close to £1,000 for the All Saints Youth Project. From conversations over the Christmas period we know that many of you engaged with the quiz.

The quiz was designed as fun quiz, but the main purpose was to provide the community with an additional opportunity to support the wonderful work and raise funds for the Project. We are confident that both aims were realised and we plan to run a fifth quiz for Christmas 2023! There were an encouraging number of submitted entries this year and we are delighted to report that Carol Chapple won the first prize of £30 and Ken Fisher the second prize of £20. There were three lucky entries that each won a £10 M&S voucher, congratulations to Paul Brown, Alistair Scott and Liz Smart

If you enjoyed the quiz but have not yet seen the answers these are available at: www.allsaintsyouthproject.org.uk or e-mail: tedhammond74@gmail.com

Donations can of course still be made via the website or bank transfer.

With our thanks and best wishes
Lindsey and Ted Hammond

Since October 2022, parents attending The All Saints Parent Well Being group have taken part in planning, designing and fitting a xmas themed post box topper on the post box outside Boomers Cafe.

Collectively, parents came up with ideas and contributed to identifying resources and materials. The aim is to encourage our community to smile and come together. The next theme will be Easter. So keep looking out for brightly knitted eggs and chicks.
