Country Walks Through Colonial Britain
Saturday November 2nd at 3pm
Admittance Just £5 including tea, coffee, and cake

Hear about how a series of country walks in nearby places like the Cotswolds show how our countryside was changed by colonial activity. An Opium Walk through the Lake District. A Wool Walk through Wales. A copper and Steam Walk through Cornwall. Hear about the links between Imperial Wealth and British Landscapes. How was Rural Labour and Country Life changed. Who Benefitted and who was Disposed. How did this history shape lives across Britain then and today?

The Robin Centre

We believe that older people have the right to inclusion, independence and choice. We offer a high quality, safe and caring environment for all who attend the centre.

Our aim is to support them to continue to live independently in the community.

We provide person centred care and assistance, working together with carers and families to support their individual needs.
